VAIL

A man who grasped the present,
And made it his.
A man who shaped the future,
And made it ours.
A man who took life's challenge
And returned it.
A man who took pleasure in big things,
But did not ignore the small.
A man who was worthy of life.

FACULTY AND

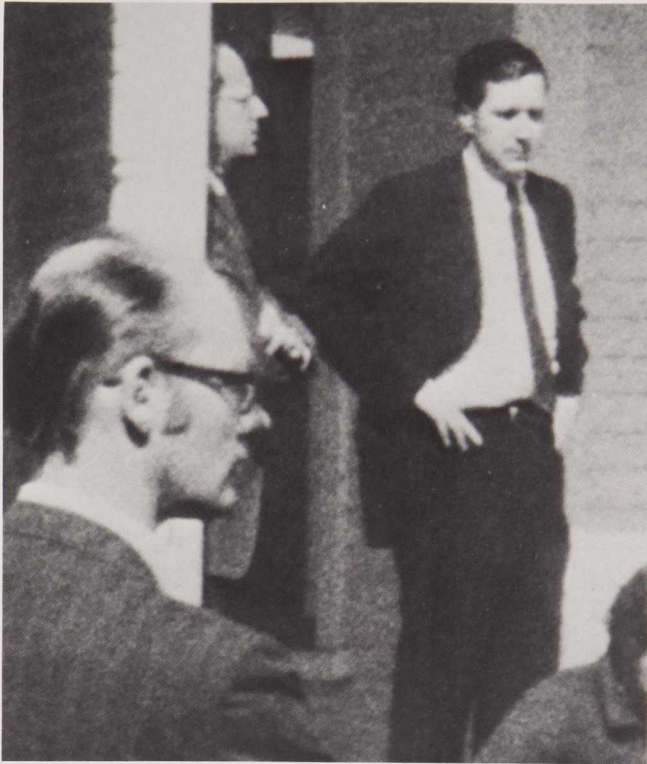

To the Class of 1972:

Although you have finished four years of college life, I hope that you will not consider your degree a "terminal degree." The world you are entering is truly a free university, without classrooms and teachers; may you continue to study and learn with minds open to challenge and unclouded by prejudice.

Sincere congratulations and good wishes.

"In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in that familiar things he touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all things that knew him."

THE LONG AWAITED MOMENT
FINALLY ARRIVES.

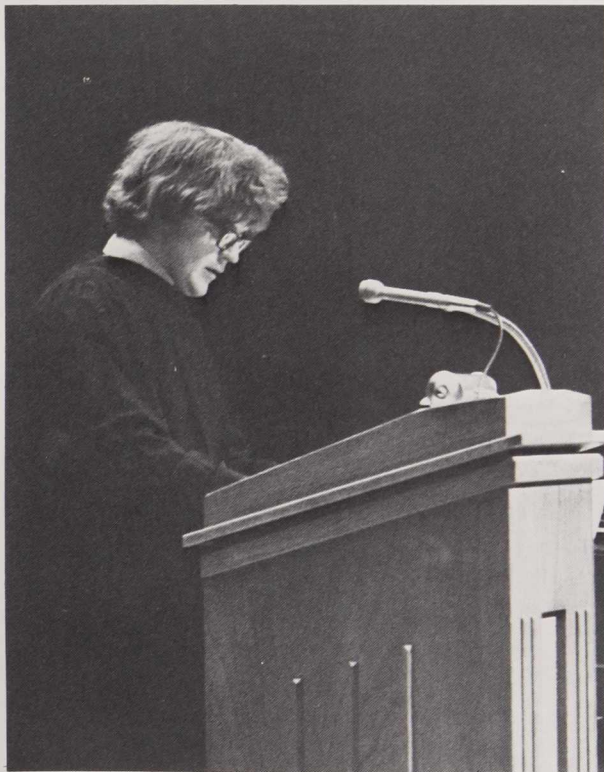

Graduating Seniors Speak

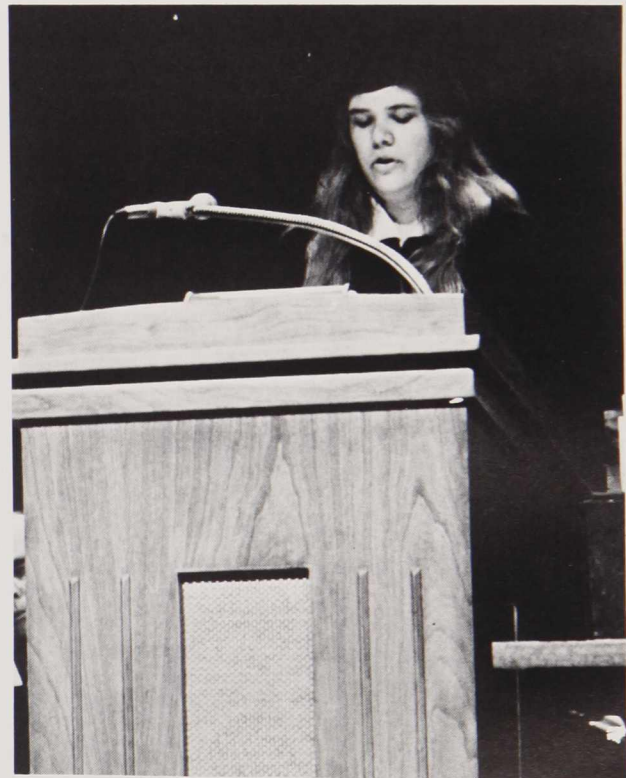

Tom Thetford

"... We have many people to thank, we haven't been numbers here. We've been able to make friends, and more importantly to make judgments — and with judgments come conflicts — and with conflicts come victories."

John Sullivan

"... We all know of the discrepancies within our society, and within our world. I hope that we can bridge these differences through an understanding and respect for the other person. We are not always right, nor are they always wrong. We must find truth to agree upon. We must communicate with our hearts as well as with our lips. Then we will have the peace on earth and good-will towards men that someone mentioned a long time ago."

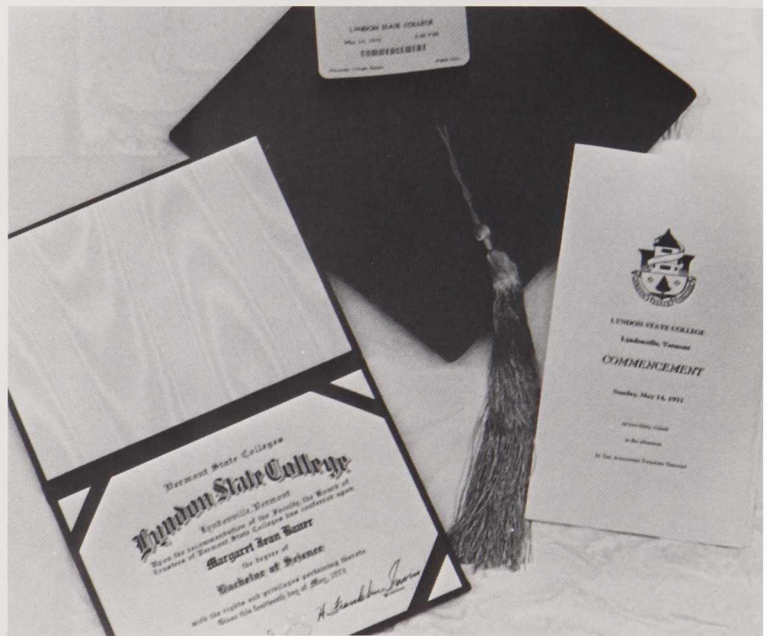

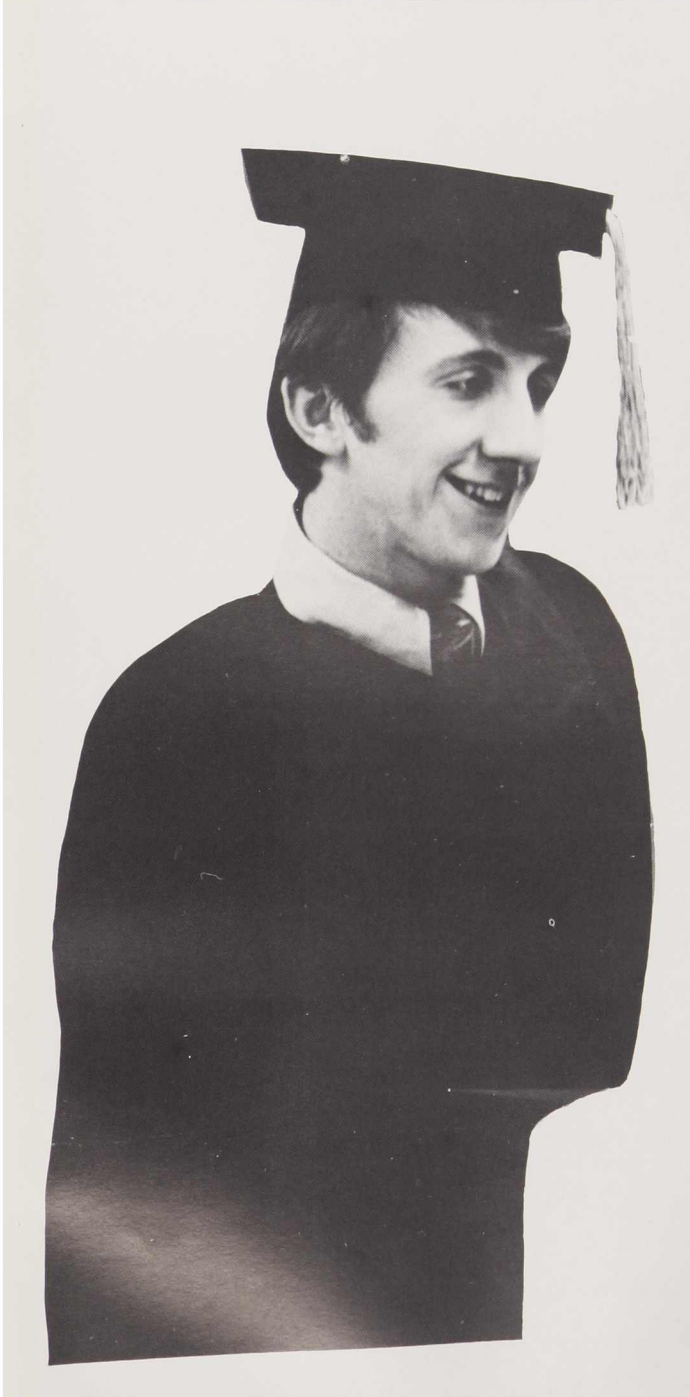

Sara Jo Waggoner

"... Many years and a few 'career changes' later, here I am — a finished product by many peoples standards. Maybe when I started college I felt I had four years ahead of me and then I would be grown and educated to my own fulfillment and ready to go out and conquer the world, but now I know my four years at Lyndon has only opened up new avenues of explorations."

LYNDON STATE COLLEGE

LYNDONVILLE, VERMONT 05851

AREA CODE 802 626-3335

To the Members of the College Community,

The 1972 VAIL is the first yearbook that Lyndon State has produced since 1968. Taking this project out of the mothballs was no easy task.

The VAIL represents the efforts of a few people to give the student body a yearbook which is a record of the changing life at Lyndon. Personally, I have enjoyed working on the yearbook. At times, frustration overwhelmed me, but I believe frustration is part of all worthwhile ventures.

In reflecting on the long days and nights of putting the VAIL together, I am the first to admit 'we made mistakes,' but hope that these mistakes will guide the 1972-73 staff to the production of a better book.

I realize that the '72 VAIL will be subject to much criticism. I ask you to share your constructive criticism, your time and effort with the 1972-73 VAIL staff, who, I am sure, will strive to correct and improve this book.

In the same token, I hope the the 1972 VAIL recaptures in some way what life at Lyndon was to YOU.

The past now gone,
the future...

Mary Lou Dickerhof

As I looked into his eyes
I asked him about yesterday,
Recalling to his mind, he told me
He saw the sun setting on a new horizon.
